

1. Society glorifies being “locked up.” Why do you think people who have been imprisoned are considered “cool”?
2. Read 2 Peter 2.15a. “They have left the true road and have gone down the wrong path.” Explain what this means to you.
3. A man served time in jail for 40 years. What advice would you give him upon his return home? Do you think it’s too late for him to experience freedom in Christ? Why or why not?
4. A familiar quote states that, “Misery loves company.” When a person experiences new-found freedom through Christ, sometimes their old friends treat them harshly. Why do some people want believers to continue doing the “wrong” things?
5. Which do you think is harder to handle – physical prison or spiritual prison? Why?
